TECHNICAL EDUCATION BRANCH.

SYDNEY TECHNICAL COLLEGE AND BRANCH TECHNICAL COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS.

Technical Education in New South Wales is under the direction of the Technical Education Branch of the Department of Education. This Branch fills a definite place in the educational system of the State, and embraces in its scope trade and higher technical instruction. The headquarters of the Branch are located in the Sydney Technical College, which is also the chief institution in which the various courses of supplementary trade and higher technical instruction are given. Branch colleges are in operation at East Sydney, Newcastle and Broken Hill, and up-to-date trade schools are established in the metropolitan area at Balmain, Enmore, Erskineville, Granville, Kogarah, Leichhardt and North Sydney, and in the country at Albury, Bathurst, Cessnock, Goulburn, Lithgow, West Maitland and Woollongong. Instruction in one or more individual subjects is given at a large number of towns throughout the State.

JAMES NANGLE, Superintendent of Technical Education.
